By WALLACE CARROLL

British United Press. Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.

LONDON, June 20.—A German air raid on the Channel Islands was taken by Britons today as a grim warning that the long threatened invasion of the British Isles was now imminent.

Twenty-nine persons were killed and more than 36 wounded, it was announced, in the German raids on the Channel Islands in which eye-witnesses said the German planes bombed and machine-gunned civilians. The islands were completely undefended.

TURKEY MAY MOBILIZE ALL BATTLE FORCES

Announcement Indicates Additional Classes To Be Called Up

By HUGH SPECK

British United Press. Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.

ISTANBUL, Turkey, June 20.—Turkey announced today that all civilians between 15 and 65 will be subject to military service in the event the government decides to invoke general mobilization. The announcement is taken as a sign that the Turkish government is considering the advisability of mobilizing additional land and air forces. This would be in fear that the war might spread to the Balkans and the Near East.

It is indicated that general mobilization in Turkey will be ordered only in the event of "exceptional circumstances."

All the same time Turkey is reported ready to make troops from the Syrian front as a result of the French army of the Near East being ordered to cease hostilities against Germany and Italy.

FUTURE OF SYRIA

The Turkish president and the premier of Iraq have held a long conference and unofficial sources say that the future of Syria was one of the outstanding topics discussed. Syria lies between Turkey and Iraq. Turkey meanwhile, is taking additional defence precautions. Heavy arms are being moved into positions commanding the Bosporus and additional reinforcements are reported moving up from Anatolia toward Syria.

Miss Gwynne Napier Named Assistant Manager 1941 Fair; Directorate Positions Open

GWYNNE NAPIER was named assistant managing-director of the 1941 Boys' and Girls' Fair at the final meeting of this year's Fair held at the Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday. The managing-director has yet to be appointed. Other official selections for the 18th annual youth show include Ralph Miller, treasurer; Jean Cunningham, secretary; and Kenneth T. Brown, publicity. The five department managers are J. C. Gordon Brown, promotion; Robert Purvis, construction; Olive Miller, fine arts; Jack Cook, crafts, hobbies and pets; and Dave Kushner, recreation.

All the new appointees have had previous Fair experience, and are well qualified for their respective tasks. An early meeting of the new executive is planned, at which time it is expected that complete details for the coming Fair will be announced. Applications are now being received for any of the directorate positions. Only qualification required is that the applicant be under 31 years of age, and that he or she have a genuine interest in furthering the promotion of future fine arts activities among the city's youth. Applications should be made to either the Y.M.C.A. or the Y.W.C.A. before September 30.

Referring manager-director Harvey Porter reported that he was well pleased with the results achieved during the past year. Of special note was the adoption of a formal constitution to guide the future of the fair.

Other important business was the fact that this year the fair eliminated its finance campaign and came within striking distance of becoming financially self-sufficient. Reports from other members of the retiring executive were read, showing that the fair had made substantial gains over last year's high total as established by Bob MacBeth, 1939 managing director. A slight operating surplus was reported by Treasurer Ralph Loder. Max Stewart, executive manager, prepared an analysis of the fair, and showed that the fair

Up To The Minute! Edmonton High School Students Are Bulletin Correspondents

By Pat McMillan

This marks the last week of school for this year. For many of us it means saying goodbye to our surroundings at Tech and to our association with our teachers, who have added so much to our extra-curricular activities as well as our studies.

Next year many of our Tech boys will be added to the ever-increasing list of our lads now serving with the forces. To those who will be serving next year and who are already serving, we wish them all the best in the world.

The staff of The Tech Bulletin celebrated the passing of exams with a picnic to Port Saskatchewan.

By Bert Nishigaki

At last, at long last, the final exams are over, and confidentially we're not sorry. All we regret is that we couldn't send a bouquet to those hard-working souls whose summer will be spent in marking papers. At that we gave them a pretty little tip for their trouble. How about yours?

The activities that we got the most fun out of this year.

September saw the formation of the Students' Union, presided over by Mr. J. G. Taylor, principal, and the Inter-Schools League. Before Christmas the Games Club was organized. I.O.B.E. awards made, Christian originally a boy's group show, is now exhibiting the fair.

By Betty Nishigaki

The Township Club introduced the HUBBY Hop, staged and the Christmas List broke all records.

By the way, the S.K. Club was functioning, the playground held, presentation made to Blanche Trivette, who brought skating fame to the school, and the Easter bazaar has added the new school song. After Easter came presentations to the outstanding student and publication of the yearbook. Through all this the Red-Grey-Black strided off the press regularly.

Here's wishing you all a swell holiday and high marks.

By Wilma Van Dusen

Carefully the Grade XII students dotted the final 'i' and crossed the finish line of the final exam, and the 1939-40 school year was officially closed. This year has seen many improvements and successful functions, and a brief review recalls some of these.

The first activities were the Union campaign, and the election of the students' officers.

Other achievements were the formation of a school orchestra under the direction of Robert George, and the publication of the first yearbook, edited by L. M. Smith, assisted by L. M. Smith.

Wetaskiwin High School Ends Successful Year: Activities Of Students Reach New High

By Betty Nishigaki

WETASKIWIN, June 20.—One of the most successful years in the history of the Wetaskiwin High School was brought to a conclusion this week as students completed the writing of departmental examinations, and the final report on the year's activities.

One of the main factors in the success of the past term was the strong Students' Council, headed by President Robert George, and Vice-President Murray Brown.

On Sunday an installation ceremony was held at Holy Trinity, Canon Reynolds, rector, was in charge of the service. Arthur Potter, president, and another student, president of the Edmonton Diocese, assisted in the installation of the following officers: President, Stanley Bryant; secretary, Barbara Woodhead; treasurer, Beatrice Hopkins; vice-president, Murray Brown.

The A.Y.P.A. played an active part in the inter-school activities. People's open air service held on the parliament building grounds, Rev. Trivette, rector of all the city cathedrals, addressed the gathering.

On July 8th, at 6:30 a.m., at the South Sea swimming pool, a swimming party for all the city branches will be held. You are asked to bring a lunch, and there will be a picnic in the park after the swimming. We would like to see you all there as a good time is promised.

Twenty-five members of Christ Church enjoyed a very delightful day at the camp at Kapawin.

Christ Church A.Y.P.A. defeated St. Mary's Parish in a football game last week, 11 to 1. Holy Trinity will meet Christ Church in the final game of the league. The winner will receive the league trophy.

NEWSPAPER NATURE NOTES

By STUART L. THOMPSON

Some day, when you are strolling along the path, you will see a small, plain, old-fashioned sparrow running rapidly in the grass, almost as fast as a hare, then finally fly off showing clearly two white tail feathers. This is the vesper sparrow.

It is he who sings most sweetly at the close of day. The fluting note of a vesper sparrow is the dullest of all. One by one the note-singers of the meadow cease their music, but the vesper sparrow on until his voice is the only note in the landscape becomes more and more wrapped in silence.

The song of this sparrow resembles in a general way that of the song sparrow, but it is a finer, sweeter note. It begins with two low musical notes, followed by a higher one, and then a series of rich trills, trills and quavers. The whole song is a sweet, almost pathetic, though so appropriate of the restful atmosphere of evening.

The vesper sparrow is essentially a bird of the open country: no swamp or thicket is his home, however, there is a nesting season does the bird live in the open country, but it is one of her children of the plain.

He lacks any vivid color: brown and grey make up his dress. On his head is a tuft of brown, however, there is one touch of rich brown which is a mark of the bird's plumage.

He is a bird of the open country, but it is one of her children of the plain.

HEMISPHERE DEFENSE

The United States is the only great armed power in the world—but experts doubt if U.S. arms could stretch in case of need to defend South America below the Gulf of Brazil.

There are armies and navies in South America, but—(The hemisphere defense picture is mostly "hole") Save for a few crack regiments in the A-B-C countries (Argentina, Brazil and Chile), the armies of South America are poorly trained and even more poorly equipped. The potential military manpower is there, but there are no tanks, a mere handful of anti-aircraft guns, and little modern artillery.

There are about 850 military planes in all the Americas outside the U.S.—but not a third can be classed as modern craft. Save for the American forces, there are no big bombers.

Most of the South American navies have admirals—but they haven't got ships. The A-B-C countries and Peru have a few ancient warships. The other "navies" are semi-floating rafts from a shipwreck—river gunboats that were built in 1880, wood-barked, iron-plated boats, armed with obsolete and antiquated torpedoes that a European assassin would snap apart.

CANAL PROTECTED North of the Brazilian bulge the picture is brighter: Key to U.S. defense strategy must be protection for the Panama Canal, which means control of the Caribbean Sea—America's big lake.

Coast defense strategy and anti-aircraft guns are massed in lethal array to command all the approaches to the canal. The navy and army have major establishments at Coco, by the far-flung island with plane carriers and submarines literally around and more a-coming. That's only the one ring around the canal proper. Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors don't run to let any enemy get that close.

The outpost guarding the canal are 500 to 1,000 miles away, at Guantánamo in Cuba, at San Juan, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Cape Verde Islands in the Atlantic.

These are major shore establishments from which operate the U.S. ship-plane patrol. It would be foolish to let the far-flung island with plane carriers. The admirals and generals aim to meet any threat and send it far away from the canal.

AIRLINES AN ADVANTAGE Well, if plane carriers couldn't get through the tight

CITY WILL NOT PURCHASE NEW BUSES IN U.S.A.

Gravity Of War Situation Considered By Council In Decision

The city council voted Friday afternoon purchasing two trolley buses from the United States in view of the fact that three trolley buses are now on order from England at a special meeting of the council held in the afternoon. The council also voted to purchase the three buses from England has been postponed indefinitely.

Council felt that the city should not make any additional expenditures for buses at the present time in view of the grave war situation. Although the council expressed the belief that through citizens might be caused some inconvenience by the non-purchase of the buses, especially during the hot hours, they would willingly put up with the inconvenience when they realized that it was caused as a result of the war.

Recommendation of the commissioners for the construction of a two-story permanent garage building at the present site of the city garage at an estimated cost of $40,000, was tabled pending a report from the commissioners on the availability of the old W. H. Baker building on 130 street and 100 avenue, which has been taken over by the city. Council also voted that the entire garage works might be moved to that site if it was found suitable.

Storage is needed for the Diesel buses operated by the city. The garage formerly available at Penn Motors on 114 street has been taken over by the Dominion government for war training purposes. A special meeting in the afternoon will be held next week to discuss the commissioners' report.

SIX-MONTH TERM IS IMPOSED FOR SEDITION GUILT

Serving warrants to persons who might be inclined to make statements of a seditious nature, Magistrate Miller on Friday imposed a six-month term on Adam J. Metz, convicted of a breach of the Defence of Canada Regulations. It was the stiffest sentence yet passed here for offences under the War Measures Act.

Metz, according to evidence of witnesses, both fellow employees, had expressed a wish that Britain and France would be beaten in the war and that refugees and their families, the King and queen, were not the concern of the country.

Describing the statements attributed to Metz as "very dangerous," the court said he could not view the matter in any but a seditious light.

600 ATTEND PICNIC FOR OLD-TIMERS

Sports Events, Dance Feature Gathering At Lakeview Friday

Celebrating with a vim and vigor that belied the name of the organization, about 600 members and friends of the Northern Alberta, Pioneer and Old-Timers association attended the annual picnic of that body at Lakeview Friday afternoon and evening.

Annual ideal weather conditions favored the celebrants who spent the afternoon in carrying out a spirited number of athletic competitions, in which the old-timers discovered that youth is indeed a quality of mind.

CONCERT GIVEN
Following the games a highly enjoyable luncheon was held at the Lakeview pavilion, after which the picnicers enjoyed a concert by the Edmonton Welsh Male Voice Choir, led by Jack Williams. The choir, which was made up of men and boys, sang several rounds of community singing.

After the concert, the picnicers enjoyed a game of billiards, and a dance was held in the hall. The picnic was a great success, and the old-timers enjoyed it very much.

STAFF INSP. MATTHEW BLACKWOOD, city police: In a real example of patriotism made by a non-commissioned officer of the Empire that night, he was in the city of Canada. At the request of aldermen, city commissioners have been asked to prepare a report on what central accommodations are available for evacuee children from England. The accommodation will be necessary for the children who are being sent to homes of citizens willing to take them for the duration of the war.

The Inquiring Reporter

Due to the fact that many persons will be away from their homes during the summer months, The Bulletin will publish questions for cash replies in this column during the summer months. These readers who have submitted questions should be sure to have their names and addresses in full, so that they may be reached if necessary.

THE QUESTION:
There's a certain fellow in Great Falls, Minn., who has won the prize of all local Canadians as the best of his kind. A Canadian in Calgary recently, he refused to give the savings he has accumulated for his family, but he has given it to the Canadian Red Cross. He is a Canadian, and he is a Canadian. He is a Canadian, and he is a Canadian.

THE ANSWER:
NON-CHRISTIAN, university student: It does your heart good to hear about such a kind fellow, and it just goes to show the feeling of friendliness which Americans hold for their Canadian brothers at war. There's no doubt in my mind that many other American students will do the same thing this summer. While we have a right to expect it of them, I feel sure that a great many of them will want to help in this way. Citizens of Great Falls should be proud of that fellow.

PRESTY, GIFFEN, business: A meeting place for one of our real friends in the States? You said this chap didn't reveal his identity. I'm sure that if he had, he would be charged with letters from Canada. He is a Canadian, and he is a Canadian. He is a Canadian, and he is a Canadian.

LAURETTE CARRIGAN, secretary: He deserves a big hug and a kiss from the men of Great Falls, and I hope the next time he comes back to his home in Great Falls, he will be a Canadian. He is a Canadian, and he is a Canadian. He is a Canadian, and he is a Canadian.

ERNEST NEWLAND, insurance man: Our American friends are always welcome in Canada, and those who follow the precedent set by the fellow mentioned are doubly welcome. There's no doubt in my mind that many other American students will do the same thing this summer. While we have a right to expect it of them, I feel sure that a great many of them will want to help in this way. Citizens of Great Falls should be proud of that fellow.

circumstances are utterly foreign to Washington's knowledge and understanding of thinking. Betty Mary told me that now. However, could she have thought smugly to recommend the two courageous officers be charged, just because they were unable to capture a pique criminal who had put dozens of henchmen, and who self never ventured onto the international line?

THE morning daily from El Paso was as usual on the streets of Juarez at dawn, and as usual Bob Mary bought a copy when it came down to breakfast. She had even acquired a pet newsworthy now, a dirty but likeable "muchacho" who came into the hotel dining room. The page 1 banner headline this morning instantly caught her attention:

"It looks like a dog, or maybe a burlap sack. Sherry, see." He murmured, still wielding a large wrench.

"Sure as shootin'." Sherry agreed. "It just crawled out of the water and it's slipping right up to Pete's kitchen door!"

"Keep on acting, but let's edge down nearer the ground. Maybe we can make a run for it."

In 10 minutes they were quiet, tightening a bolt on one of the people standards, apparently done in their work. But they were on the ground, several feet nearer the Peralta shack. Other people were constantly passing within a few feet of them on the road and sidewalks usual in this industrial district of the city. Their presence could excite no suspicion.

"There's another one!" Sherril whispered presently. "Keep close."

"It's a sack, all right." He agreed in a moment. "It's being pulled by a wire or something. Let's make a run for it, huh?"

"Okay. You dive for the back. I go in the front door."

In that instant they dropped the

Instantly one drew a pistol and fired it, but Sherry had kept in motion. He grabbed the first object at hand—a chair.

He swung in a terrific arc, floor by floor, and knocked another color guard down. The pistol skittered across the floor. Hope burst in then and a few quick fist blows gave him a sherry mastery of the situation. After the fight was gone out of the four men, and it was easy to tie them with strands of their own wire. PROVINCES TO SECURE HOMES
FOR EVACUEESChurches, Service Clubs
May Co-Operate With Welfare Officers

OTTAWA, June 28.—Finding homes for refugee children from the United Kingdom will be the responsibility of the provinces, Resources Minister T. A. Cresser said last night.

"The minister made this statement upon conclusion of a conference with representatives of the provincial governments and it was interpreted as meaning charitable organizations and individuals must subordinate their desires to the matter of helping the children to the authorities."

"Churches, service clubs and individuals can co-operate in many ways with provincial welfare officers," Mr. Cresser said.

He expressed his appreciation of the splendid co-operation given by the provinces. "Many offers of free homes and also offers of voluntary assistance have been received as interest among Canadians deepens."

The conference, it is understood, considered plans for looking after a great many more children than were expected at a previous gathering of Dominion and provincial authorities earlier in June. At that time an offer to look after 11,000 British youngsters was made.

Several hundred children are expected to arrive shortly and before July is over as many as 5,000 likely will have been transferred across the Atlantic.

The general plan of allocation of numbers is that Quebec and Ontario shall take half of the children between them and the rest will be distributed among the provinces according to population.

VANCOUVER, June 28.—Mrs. Wallace H. Creery, wife of Commander Creery of H.M.C.S. Fraser, has received a cable from her husband Thursday wishing her "Many happy returns of the day."

RUMORS TO HIT
TOURIST TRADE
TRACKED DOWN

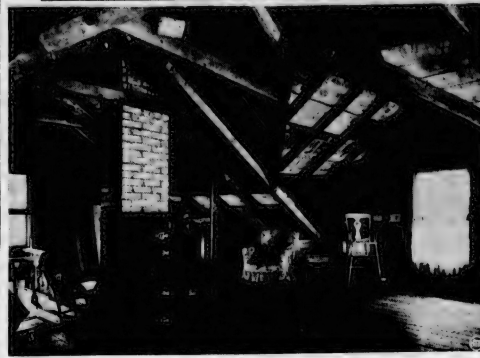

OTTAWA, June 28.—Now that the Dominion government has definitely decided not to require passports for United States visitors coming to Canada, the travel bureau of the tourist department is considering its efforts to chase down all the rumors in United States that have been discouraging tourists from visiting the Dominion.

One rumor was that Canada would insist on passports. D. Leo Dolan, head of the bureau said yesterday.

The letters which have been pouring into this office have indicated how widespread and how ridiculous many of these rumors were and I am convinced they were spread through organized efforts to hit Canada by reducing its tourist returns," he said.

One rumor was that Canada was likely to be invaded at any time by the Germans and it would be unsafe to go there. Another was that Canada was heavily taxed that gasoline cost 15 cents a gallon which was effective in keeping motorists away.

Presto Change! And Your House Has An Extra Room

Before it was just an attic, a catchall for this and that—a large room, but a not very useful one. When they were little, the children sometimes played there in rainy afternoons. As the youngsters grew up an additional bed-room became a necessity.

After—So the bare, unfinished attic was made into this attractive, light, airy one. The walls were covered with sound-proof insulating board and painted a soft shade of yellow. Painted furniture, a double bed, built-in bookshelves, theater, chess-table, curtains and chest chairs complete the transformation.

FORMER ALBERTA
FARMER FORCED LEAVE GUERNSEY

LONDON, June 28.—The experience of Charles Fraser, who now farmed in Alberta, was typical of the hundreds forced to leave Guernsey and the other Channel islands on short notice when they were evacuated last year.

Fraser, with money made while in Canada during an eight-year stay, opened a store in St. Peter. One morning he was told that he must send his wife and family to England. That night he was informed he also had to leave at once. Evacuated to London, he is now trying to find ways and means of taking his family to Canada.

Fraser is one of four Guernsey people who have lived in Canada and who had to evacuate the island without their personal goods. All are seeking to return to the Dominion.

A gift professional claims to have invented a weighted ball that makes putting easy. What a joy to be budgeted.

U.S. Understanding
With British Navy
May Localize Nazis

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Senator Key Pittman (Dent, Nevada), reported yesterday that an understanding between the United States and Great Britain would localize the Nazis.

Pittman, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee said to congressional leaders, "The world has never been so close to the United States and Great Britain" but that "An understanding between the two nations would be sufficient."

The combined British-French fleet would dominate one ocean while that of the United States would control another, the Nevada said.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly
Benefit Game
Off The Wires
Plenty Horses

BASKETBALL steps up to take a cut at the ball in the interest of war funds with the announcement today that the Arrows and players of the Central Alberta League will stage a benefit game at Renfrew Park on July 9.

The entire proceeds of this game will be turned over to the Duke of Edinburgh chapter of the I.O.G.F. for its war funds. The teams will take nothing for expenses, the umpire will donate their services—every cent will go toward Canada's war drive.

You'll go a long way before you find a more pleasant way of driving a nail in the Nazi coffin than this benefit game will provide. All teams in the Central League are playing an exceptionally fine calibre of ball—far better than anyone dared to hope for at the start of the season. Renfrew Park offers facilities for the public second to none in the west and if you get into the spirit of the thing with the crowd you'll have a mighty fine evening of fun.

It's a worthy cause—put the evening of July 9 down on your date book now.

Scalping The Day's Wires

THE Johnny Vander Meer bubble has blown up. The 26-year-old Cincinnati pitcher looks a little yesterday and asked to be shipped down in Indianapolis of the American Association. Johnny has a break of physics, trouble and he needs plenty of work to cure them. With the Reds up at the top of the National League race, McKenrath doesn't feel like taking a chance and starting an ailing pitcher, so Johnny is going where he can get into the clubhouse.

Vander Meer soared into the headlines on June 11, 1938, when he pitched a no-hitter against Boston. Four days later he pitched another no-hitter against Brooklyn. On June 19 in Boston he continued the no-hitter until he had reached a total of 21 2/3 innings—four and three innings better than the previous record set by Dizzy Vance in 1923.

Tuesday night Tony Galento and Max Baer meet in Jersey City with all the promises to be the best rough and tumble hay of the year of the century. Both men have been talking a great fight—getting about 12 bucks to the mile out of their gas, reports Whitney Martin of the Associated Press. Tony hasn't a right and Max hasn't a left, but both have a few backbones and are likely to haul off and kick an opponent on the nose at any moment.

Arturo Gordo watched Galento walk yesterday and the scriber present report that the Gordo fair still looks as if it had been run over by a tank... a Joe Louis touch.

Fine Array Of Horses Promised

ONE of the largest array of horses ever to appear on the Edmonton Exhibition Association race track will be contestants for the $15,000 total purses for the six days of racing to be staged in connection with the summer fair which opens on Monday, July 15.

Reservations for more than 300 horses have been requested already, states F. N. Abbott, K.C., managing director, and it is anticipated that this number will be considerably increased.

It is sufficient to state that the quality of the horses to fill this type of race, there will be a resumption of the popular steeplechase event on three days of the summer meet, giving patrons eight races daily on the three days the horse event is scheduled.

Majority of the horses competing at the Winnipeg meetings will come to Edmonton for the summer fair, which, in addition to the horses now training at the track here will ensure patrons of well filled races.

As has been the practice on the fair circuit here for several years the sales will be conducted again this year under the supervision of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

During the six days of racing there will be a feature race in which the pride of local and western Canada bred horses will compete with well-known handiicap horses from American tracks. Many of the western Canadian bred horses to be seen in action during the summer meet were campaigned at Tarrant, Santa Anita and other California tracks during the winter.

"I am confident that the quality of racing which will be provided for patrons this summer will be enjoyed on western tracks in the history of western racing," stated L. W. Williams, chairman of the race committee.

George W. Schilling, who has been active on California tracks during the past winter and spring racing season, will be the president and acting secretary. E. D. Adams, Calgary, will be steward representing the Prairie Thoroughbred Breeder and Racing Association. James Donohue will be the starter and Henry King will have charge of the pari-mutuel.

Three Swim Dead Heat First South Side Gala

A FAIR SIZED crowd at the opening gala of the South Side swimming club last night, saw something very unusual. Three swimmers finished a race in a dead heat. It happened in the men's 100 yards and the contestants were: B. Clark, Bruce Hembling and John Valpy. In the second attempt, Clark won by a scant inch over Hembling with Valpy a close third.

The time in the girls' junior 65 yards was caught by the times, though not official, was 31 seconds flat, which is 2.5 seconds better than the provincial record. Anna Warrs won by inches over Dorothy Edwards and Norren Warrs was free time to feel free.

Miss Mitchell's come train on the high board was a feature. In the Junior's 100 yards, Miss Mitchell won by a wide margin. The time in the girls' junior 100 yards was 1:11 and 1/2.

Par Defies Golfers After Alberta Title

By JACK KELLY

PAR was retained in unapproachable dignity at the Highlands Club here on Friday as 43 competitors completed the qualifying round of the Alberta golf championship without coming any closer than a pitch shot to the 72-stroke figure that constitutes the mark to shoot at on this course.

Bill Graves of Calgary was the best of the field with a 74 that won him the medal honors. Next lowest was Henry Martell, defending champion, with a 75. From that figure the scores bunched upward with 85 being high enough to make the championship fight.
